

UNRIVALLED CARE & COMPASSION

QUINTON HOUSE

QUINTON HOUSE

“From the moment I walked into Quinton House I knew this was the home for my Mum. We were delighted when the owner called and told us we had a place. We have not been disappointed. They have looked after Mum’s needs with great compassion and professionalism.

It is always fully staffed. My Mum could not be in a better place. All the staff take the time to get to know the patients including the owner and family.”

Welcome to Quinton House and Quinton Gardens

We're not like any other care home, and I invite you to come and find out why. Since I arrived here in 2010, the home has been transformed into what you see today, with a warm and inviting environment, person-centred care and real family values at the heart.

If quality care and compassion are what you're looking for, you'll find exactly that at Quinton House and Quinton Gardens, as every member of staff shares the same ethos, and we care for our residents like you'd care for your own family.

With light, spacious en-suite bedrooms overlooking beautiful gardens, you or your loved one will soon feel at home here – and with specialist nursing, residential and dementia care, along with a higher-than-average staff-to-resident ratio, you can have peace of mind that everyone here is nothing short of well-cared-for.

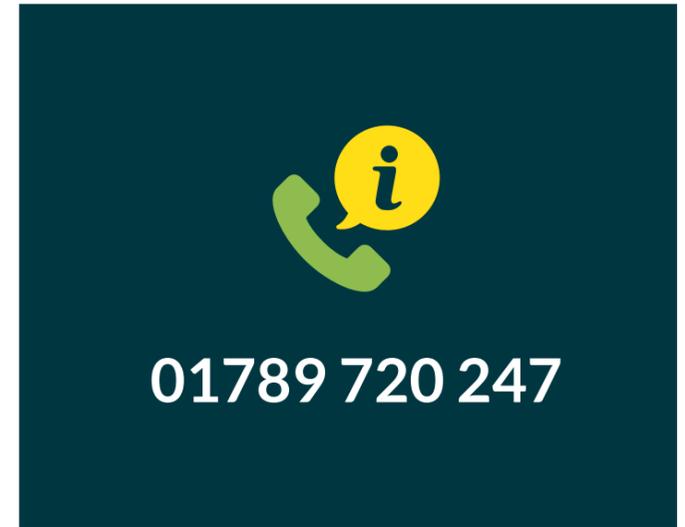

Our expert, hardworking staff take the time to get to know each of our residents and their families, and they understand their needs, emotions, interests, habits and hopes, meaning even greater quality care can be provided. And better yet, with freshly-made food, along with fun and engaging activities, it's a healthy and happy environment that we're proud to have created.

If you would like to come and see Quinton House and Quinton Gardens, get in touch by calling 01789 720 247 or emailing info@quintonhouse.net and I'd be more than happy to arrange a personal tour of our home at a time that suits you. If you'd prefer, pop in when you're in the area and a member of the team will show you around and answer any questions you may have.

I really do hope to see you very soon, so I can show you what we're all about here at Quinton House and Gardens.

All the best,
Bill Mehta.

Our Care

At Quinton House and Quinton Gardens, we offer specialist residential, nursing and dementia care in a homely environment, surrounded by beautiful countryside. No matter what your needs or those of your loved one, our specially-trained carers and nurses are here to help, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Residential

- If you're finding that you're needing a helping hand with the odd daily task and your home is no longer the best or safest place for you to be, Quinton House can provide you with as much assistance as you need yet help you to maintain your own independence.

Nursing

- If you're in need of a higher level of care than you're currently receiving, our fantastic team of nurses can provide all the assistance you need with total dignity and respect – and always with a smile too, as in our opinion, that's just as important.

Dementia

- If your loved one is living with dementia and you're in need of expert care to make sure they're happy, healthy and safe, Quinton Gardens is the perfect place. Specially-designed to suit individuals living with dementia, it's an ideal environment offering first-class care.

Every single resident here is different, so their care is too – our highly-trained staff listen to each resident's needs and create bespoke support packages tailored to their personal circumstances and lifestyle preferences, always maintaining independence, privacy and choice. This, along with an established, longstanding team and a range of assistive technology, helps residents to settle in quickly and feel comfortable here.

No matter what kind of care you or your loved one need, we're here to help at Quinton House and Quinton Gardens with compassionate, person-centred, exceptional care. And with more than 20 years' experience and a great reputation in Warwickshire, we're committed to providing every single resident at Quinton House and Quinton Gardens with exactly the right level of care and support, wherever and whenever it's required.

Life at Quinton House and Quinton Gardens

With a homely feel, comfortable furnishings, a spacious conservatory and beautiful gardens, there's a lovely atmosphere throughout Quinton House and Quinton Gardens, and our highly-trained staff make our home even happier with great care, fantastic food and a range of brilliant activities and days out.

So much to do and see

Residents have regular opportunities to be active and sociable, with indoor and outdoor activities taking place most days, including board games, exercise, country walks, restaurant trips, karaoke, group discussions, bird shows, museums and memory challenges. We also arrange local visits to the pub and farm in the village, thanks to our excellent links with the local community. Residents who prefer peace and quiet are equally catered for in the more tranquil areas of the home.

We also have treatment rooms, including a hair salon, nail spa and beauty room here at Quinton House and Gardens, so residents can relax and unwind without having to go anywhere. And with Wi-Fi and satellite television, there's no end of entertainment available.

Food, glorious food

Our kitchen has a five-star food hygiene rating, and our brilliant chef cooks up a storm for our residents to enjoy in the dining room or in the comfort of their own bedroom. Using fresh, local ingredients, residents benefit from a healthy, balanced diet of delicious and nutritious meals. Everything is homemade as this means we can cater to any dietary requirements and preferences.

Our delicious dinners aren't just for residents – if there's a special birthday or anniversary on the horizon, or even if you just want to have dinner together as a family, we also offer organised events, so you can all celebrate here together!

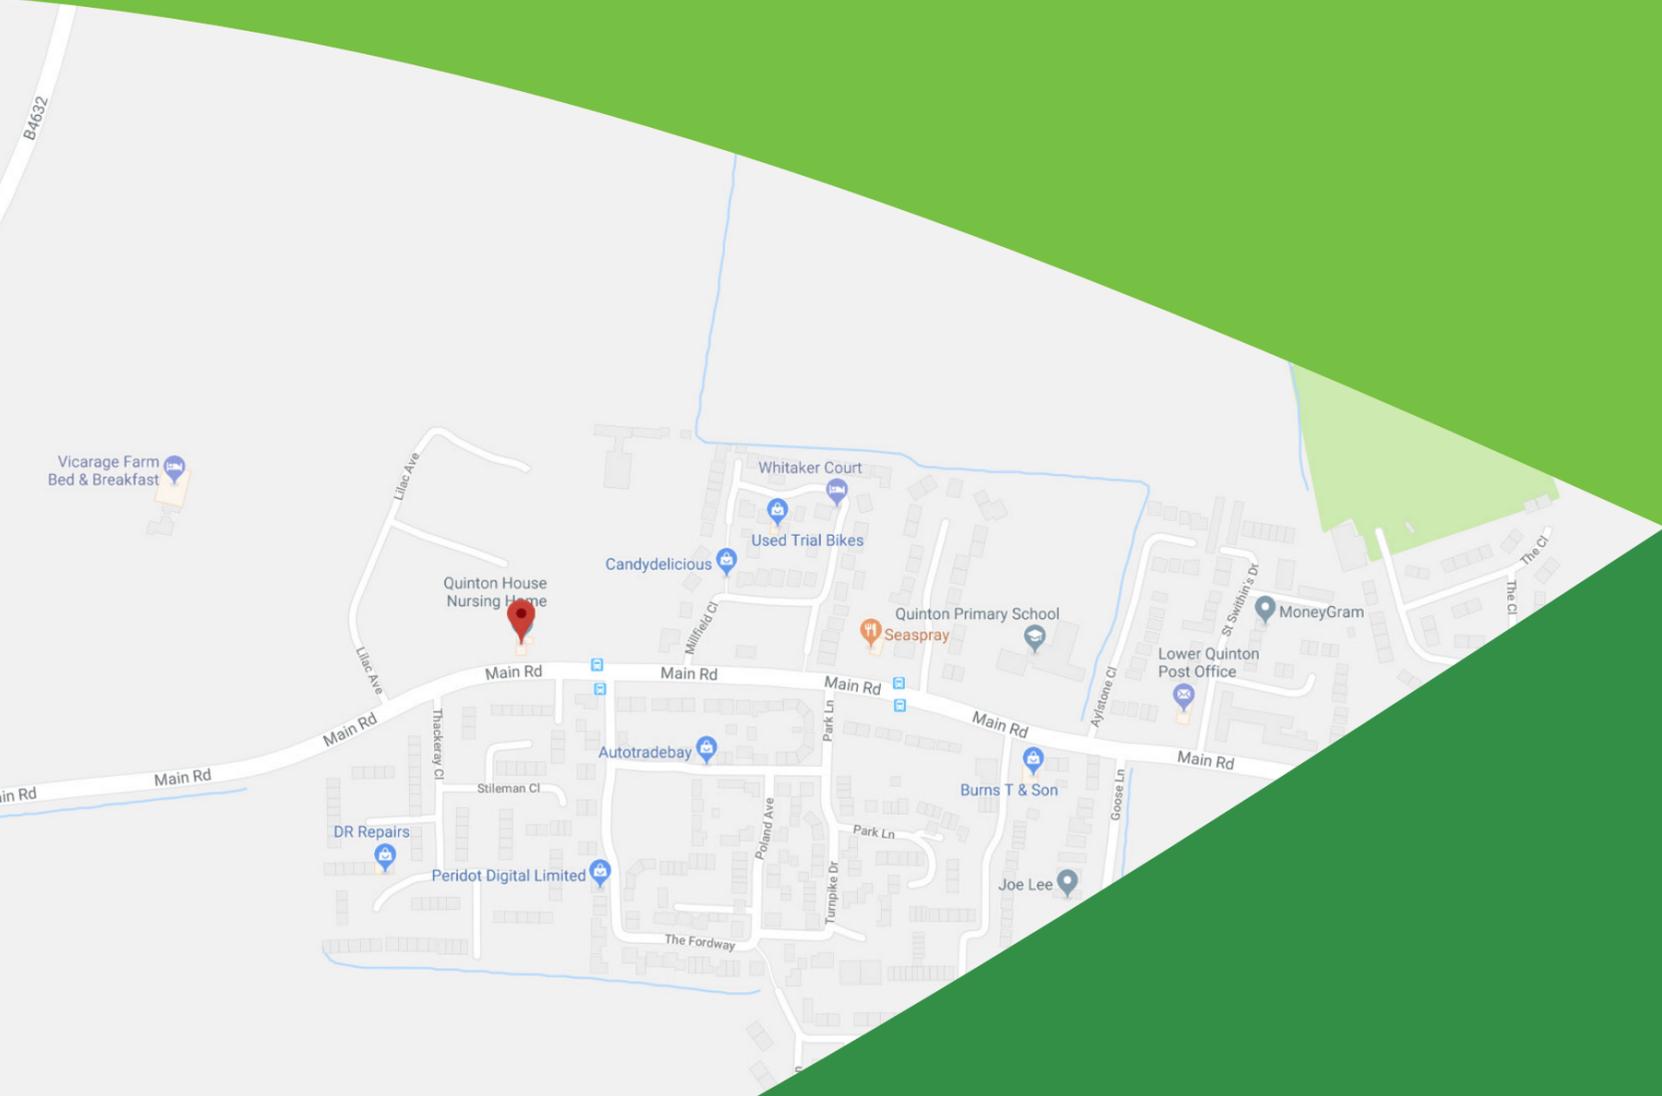

Could Quinton be your new home?

Whether you're considering care for yourself, a friend or family member, we're here to help – our brilliant team will answer any questions you may have to give you complete peace of mind and make the transition as smooth as possible. And as we're surrounded by beautiful countryside and we offer plenty of visitor parking, we believe Quinton House and Gardens is not only a lovely place to live but also a nice place to visit.
